ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

At a high level if the answer to each of the following is "YES", there is potential for an R&D Tax Incentive claim:

- Do you operate your business via a company incorporated in Australia?
- Are you attempting to develop new/improved materials, products, devices, processes or services?
- Are you conducting systematic experimentation for the purpose of creating new knowledge?
- Does your experimentation contain technical unknowns?
- Have you spent at least A$20,000 on the R&D Project?
- Do you hold the resultant IP?
- Were the activities conducted in Australia?

Note - overseas activities can be claimed in some circumstances for which a special application is required.
